

The Arizona Capital Representation Project (ACRP), Coalition of Arizonans to Abolish the Death Penalty (CAADP), Sanctity of Life People Against Executions, Catalina United Methodist Church and Southside Presbyterian Church are proud to present an evening with

SISTER HELEN PREJEAN

Nobel Peace Prize nominee, author of the Pulitzer Prize nominated, bestselling book Dead Man Walking and author of the newly published book The Death of Innocents, speaking about: "How Just is Our Justice System?"

SUNDAY, MARCH 12, 2006
7 p.m.

MUSIC BY PRIVY TIPPERS AT 6:30 p.m.

AT CATALINA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
2700 E. SPEEDWAY, TUCSON

Donations will be kindly accepted, to benefit the 501(c)(3) non-profits
ACRP and CAADP

Want to talk personally with Sister Helen?
Join her at a special dinner, 5 p.m. on March 12.

For reservations, please contact Jen Bedier, ACRP, (520) 229-8550 or Kathy Norgard (520) 325-2727